

ROMANCE BEGAN IN FAR ALASKA

Judge Thayer and Miss Barnes Are Married in Montrose, N. Y.

A romance that began two years ago in Alaska culminated to-day at Montrose on the Hudson in the marriage of Judge Rufus H. Thayer, of Washington, D. C., to Miss Harriet L. Barnes, of New York. Judge Thayer is a brother of Daniel R. Thayer, of Minneapolis, former minister to Holland, and George W. Thayer, of Rochester. He is a prominent jurist of Washington.

Mrs. Thayer is a sister of William Barnes, Jr., chairman of the Republican State Committee, a granddaughter of Thurlow Weed and daughter of William Barnes, of Albany. The ceremony took place at noon to-day at the Church of the Divine Love at Montrose on the Hudson, the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Gouverneur Ruger, officiating. Only the families of the bride and bridegroom and the Seward family were present.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the mansion of Frederick W. Seward, former acting Secretary of State under Lincoln, Johnson and Hayes, whose magnificent estate adjoins the village of Montrose. Judge Thayer and Miss Barnes arrived last night and went at once to the Seward place where arrangements had been made for the wedding which united two families that have for three generations been life long friends of the Searwards.

The relatives of the bride and bridegroom arrived to-day and will return to their homes to-night. They are Mrs. and Mr. William Barnes, Jr., Mrs. George C. Hollister, a sister of the bride; her husband, George C. Hollister, and Thurlow Weed Barnes of New York, another brother of the bride; Daniel R. Thayer and George W. Thayer, brothers of the bridegroom, and Frederick W. Seward and family.

The engagement of Judge Thayer, who is about forty-five years of age, to Miss Barnes, thirty-five, was announced two years ago but the marriage was postponed on account of illness in Miss Barnes's family. The judge and Miss Barnes met for the first time on a trip to Alaska over two years ago.

Mr. Seward and wife were invited to to-day's wedding party and Senator Warner Miller and daughter and a few other friends to make a tour of Alaska and it was then that the acquaintance was made that ripened into love and culminated in the marriage to-day.

SURROGATE CHURCH SCORES DIVORCE LAWS.

In settling Schill will contest he calls present conditions a disgrace.

The fight over the will of the late John Schill, of No. 100 Eldert street, Brooklyn, was settled by Surrogate Church in that borough to-day with a decision in favor of Mrs. Elizabeth Schill, the widow. The estate is a small one, not more than $15,000, but there were many interesting points in it. The relatives who brought the contest declared that Mrs. Schill, although divorced from her first husband, James Barry, of this city, in Chicago, was not legally divorced from him in this State, and that, therefore, she had no claims on his property. In his decision Surrogate Church says:

"It is a most unfortunate condition of affairs, and a disgrace to our twentieth century civilization, that under the laws of this country a woman may, with perfectly pure intention, be regarded as virtuous in one State, while in another State she is called an adulteress and her offspring bastards. An action should be taken to relieve the country of the shame of such a condition."

CRUSHED BY A BRIDGE TRAIN.

Conductor Soth, Caught Between Car and Railing, May Die.

William Soth, twenty-two years old, of No. 317 State street, Brooklyn, conductor of bridge train No. 1, was crushed and probably fatally injured by his own train at the Brooklyn end of the bridge to-day. Only prompt action by a fellow employee saved him from being instantly killed.

David Wilson, another conductor, who was standing on the platform, saw that Soth was in danger of being thrown under the wheels or upon the third rail, and seized and held the imperiled man until he could be drawn from his dangerous position. An ambulance was called and Surgeon Kaiser attended Soth, who was hurried to the Brooklyn Hospital. It was found that he was covered with cuts and injured internally, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

POLICY FINES FOR SOCIETY.

Legislative Bill Makes Money of Prisoners Payable to the Good-Sard Organization.

(Special to The Evening World.) ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Assemblyman Prentiss introduced to-day a bill providing that all fines collected upon conviction for keeping a policy shop, or playing policy, in cases prosecuted by the Good-Sard Society, shall be paid to that society. Mr. Prentiss said:

"The expenses of the Anti-Policy Society, which for a year or more has been prosecuting the policy cases, and of which Capt. Goddard is President, are large, and it is deemed to the members of the society that in view of the rule adopted by the State in cases to which reference has been made, it is only proper that the Anti-Policy Society should receive the fines in the cases which it prosecutes."

LONGSHOREMAN GETS $1,150

"Mike" Heagan Gets that Sum for Being Hit on the Head with a Bucket.

Michael Heagan, a longshoreman, has more money to-day than he ever has had in a bunch before in his life. Michael was hit on the head by a dump bucket of coal while at work at the foot of West Fifty-second street two years ago come next Monday, and he sued the "boas," John J. Halligan, for damages. A jury in the City Court took just ten minutes to agree on a verdict, awarding $1,150 to the longshoreman.

Mr. Halligan decided not to fight the case any further and wrote his check and handed it to Abraham Oberstein, who cashed it for his client.

Accused of Slaying James Brennan, Gang Leader.

"Nine Eyed" Donnegan, accused of the murder of James Brennan on Tuesday morning last at Catherine and Madison streets, waived examination to-day through his counsel, Philip Waldheimer, in the Tombs Court, before Magistrate Flammer, and was held without bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. Robert Gnan, of No. 372 Water street, and John Dalton, of No. 30 Oliver street, who have been in custody since the shooting without bail, were discharged. It is understood they made a statement to the District-Attorney telling all about their connection with the shooting.

BAIL REFUSED FOR CHAUFFEUR

Court Holds Collins, Whose Auto Killed Mrs. McGovern.

Magistrate Pool to-day held without bail Maurice J. Collins, a chauffeur, who, it is alleged, after running down and fatally injuring Mrs. Kate McGovern last night rushed on without stopping to ascertain the extent of the victim's injuries. Mrs. McGovern, who was sixty-eight years old, died in Roosevelt Hospital an hour after being struck down and the chauffeur was arrested at the garage of the New York Transportation Company, by whom he is employed.

Coroner Scholer admitted Collins to bail last night, but the Magistrate decided that the death of the aged woman was sufficient reason for holding Collins when he was arraigned to-day in the West Side Court.

Mrs. McGovern, who lived at No. 419 West Fifty-third street with her husband, worked by the day for Butler's Phillips, No. 4 West Fifty-seventh street, and had been employed there for many years.

POLICE SWARM ON RIVERSIDE

Better Patrol Service Follows the Evening World Auto Trip.

As a direct result of The Evening World's automobile tour through Riverside Drive district early yesterday morning, showing, as it did, that no section of the city is so poorly patrolled during the early hours of the morning, the streets there literally swarmed with uniformed and ununiformed men last night.

Commissioner McAdoo sent all the men that could be spared from the station-houses on the West Side to patrol these streets, where crime has been rampant for months, and where the sight of a policeman is so unusual that when one does appear the citizens follow him with curiosity.

The policemen didn't do anything unusual, but it was a relief to the long-suffering residents to see them around. The same fourteen blocks along the Drive that were patrolled by Evening World reporters yesterday morning without a policeman being found were guarded by five uniformed men last night.

Whether Commissioner McAdoo really means to keep so many men in the vicinity or not doesn't matter. The district would be satisfied with a quarter of the protection it had last night. With even this, the residents say, there would be no more crime to complain of, if the policemen would properly patrol.

LOST IN BROOKLYN: ONE REAL GOLD BRICK.

Mr. Schiff Had It Taken from His Coat-Tail Pocket.

Misleading: One gold brick. But this is real bullion, worth $455.81. Adolph Schiff, of No. 100 West Ninety-second street, had it taken from the pocket in the tail of his coat while riding yesterday in a Sumner avenue car, Brooklyn.

He felt that the brick of yellow ore was gone after the car had gone a block. This was at Greene avenue, and Mr. Schiff hasn't seen the car or the brick since. The Brooklyn police are assisting in his effort to find it.

CHOICE GROCERIES

Homekeepers Made Happy

James Butler Makes a Sharp Cut in Canned Vegetables at All His 138 Grocery Stores.

We have welcome news for housekeepers in our prices of canned vegetables this week. All former figures are broken.

Quality considered, the prices offered to-day have never been approached, far less equalled. Where other prices approach ours, the quality will be found so disappointingly inferior that comparison is out of the question.

We buy and sell in such immense quantities that no other retailer can hope to compete with us. Ten thousand cases, or twenty carloads, furnish no more than about a day's supply, when we make a drive on special prices, as we do now. We purchase by trainloads—often the entire output of the high grades, and not by the car. Buying so largely, we control the price, make sure of the quality, and far outstrip all competition.

We offer customers for this week values that are peerless. Better be on hand early and get your share of the bargains.
